

K-Love has and continues to impact myself, my family, and my community. They have allowed my family to have a positive influence coming across the radio. To have this taken away from us would violate our rights in limiting our choices of influence over our family. The public deserves to have the choice to have access to this type of radio. Our society needs more positive influences, and to remove this one would be detrimental to this community.